OPERATIONAL HARMONY FOR YOUR SUPPLY CHAIN.

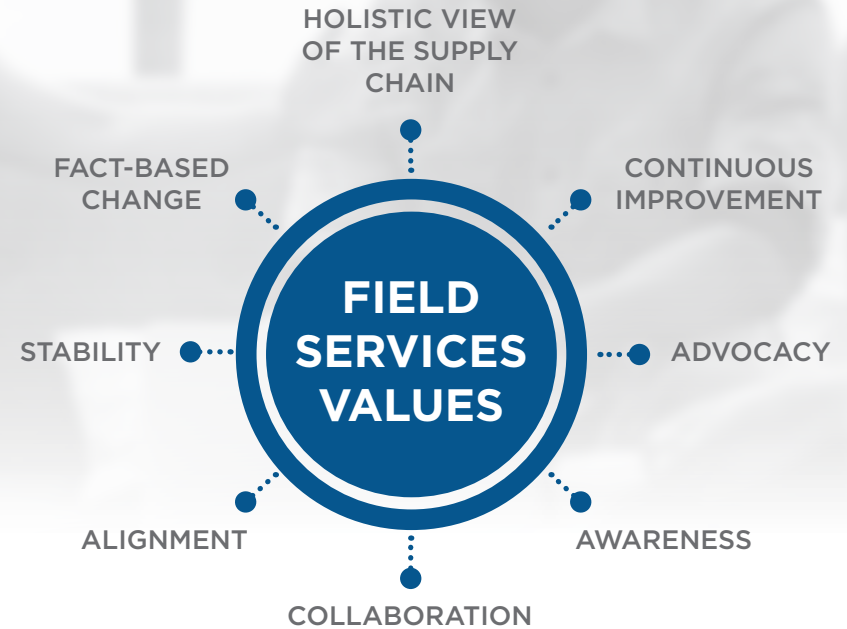

---

The complexities of today's supply chains are creating the need for more visibility, more control, more collaboration, and more agility – more than ever before. With such a dynamic supply chain environment, Operational Harmony has never been so important.

Armada's unique approach to integrated supply chain management is fortified with Field Services, a team of specialists whose main objective is to facilitate Operational Harmony in your network.

*To Armada, Operational Harmony is advocacy.
Operational Harmony is collaboration.

Our Field Services team acts in your best interest to align trading partners and to streamline processes essential to create efficiencies in your supply chain. They work for you to actively monitor and manage your network performance – collaborating with all stakeholders to positively change behaviors and facilitate innovative solutions. Our Field Services specialists are strategically located across the country allowing for more frequent face-to-face communication and they are a foundational element in Armada's integrated supply chain solutions approach.
